EAST BELFAST & THE GREAT WAR

Military Antiques Roadshow

Saturday 7th February

1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Heyn Hall, 2 Sydenham Avenue

Did a member of your family serve in the First World War? Do you have any artefacts that belonged to them, or want to share their story?

East Belfast & The Great War would like to meet you. With the support of Living Legacies 1914-1918, your stories and artefacts will be digitally catalogued and contribute to telling the story of East Belfast's Great War.

The event will also include:

A chance to view 'The Boys from East Belfast', a documentary featuring the St. Mark's Letters

2:00 pm 'Strandtown and the Great War': a presentation by East Belfast & The Great War Project Co-ordinator, Jason Burke

3:00 pm 'C. S. Lewis and the Great War': a presentation by C. S. Lewis expert and author, Sandy Smith
