Evaluation Feedback

Lunchtime lecture 11/10/17

Joe Boyle's Adventures in the Russian Revolution- Professor Geoffrey Swain

How would you rate the following   1= Poor   ------   5= Excellent

Venue

Legend:
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Lecture Content

Legend:
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Speaker

Comments

What did you like most or least about the lunchtime lecture today?

 "Relevance and interesting detail"

"A really engrossing account of a complex slice of history given local interest and resonance by the emphasis on Joe Boyle"

"Well presented and delivered"

"Good clear slides and relatively informal"

"Very interesting"

Did you learn anything new? If so, what?

"Yes a great deal"

"Yes all about Joe Boyle"

"Yes a lot"

"About an Irish input into the Russian Revolution"

Did a particular aspect of the talk have an impact on you? How?

"Interpretations of 1917"

"Not really"

"Revived knowledge of Russia"

"The photographs were well chosen and not too mainstream"

Are there any other topics that you would attend a lunchtime lecture on?

"Anything with an historical or literary flavour"

"Boundary Commission 1925"

"1. Aspects of Chinese recent history

2. The lives of famous classical composers"

Any other comments?

"Very good"

"Just to thank the organisers"