

Somme Museum Evening Lecture Series

Colditz: Escapes and Escapades

Richard Parkinson

Thursday 7th March 2019 at 7pm

To the Germans Colditz Castle was considered escape-proof but to the POWs it was a challenge, not only of survival, but also a challenge on how to escape. This presentation, 'Escapes and Escapades' gives an insight into life inside the Castle and the means by which some men escaped.

World War One – The Tank

Alan McFarland

Thursday 4th April 2019 at 7pm

Alan examines military technology in World War One - from the introduction of the Machine Gun, massed Artillery and Trench Warfare to the development of the Tank.

This Never Happened to James Bond

Brian Clarke

Thursday 9th May 2019 at 7pm

Ex-merchant navy officer Brian seeking a different life joined the Composite Signals Organisation working at Bletchley Park as well as Gilnahirk Listening Station and other stations around the world. He was involved with the 1967 Arab-Israeli War and the Chinese-Vietnam War. He has a wealth of knowledge about the world of spying and listening in.

Entry fee: £5.00 (including refreshments)

Booking is essential via: sommeassociation@btconnect.com or: 028 9182 3202